*Undaunted by the overwhelming influence of Power and Prejudice,
And the voice of Nations,
He uniformly, and until Death, perseveringly opposed:
Conscientiously believing it to be a Public Infatuation,
Fraught with peril of the most mischievous consequences to Mankind...*

*Whether right or wrong, Time will most surely determine;
MAN'S MERE OPINION MUST EVER BE LIABLE TO ERROR,
BUT BY THE MOTIVES THAT SWAY HIS HEART, SHALL HE ALONE BE JUDGED.*

To perpetuate the remembrance of Qualities so excellent,
PENELOPE BIRCH,
His affectionate and only surviving Sister,
Hath raised this Monument,
Not out of a worldly and vain-glorious
Pride of Affinity;
But, in order to hand down an Example worthy of Imitation,
To succeeding Ages.
